READING PART 2

Questions 6 – 10

The teenagers below are all looking for a music concert to go to. On the opposite page, there are descriptions of eight concerts for young people. Decide which concert would be the most suitable for the people below. For each question, choose the correct answer.

6

Alexander, who enjoys listening to modern rock, wants to go to a rock concert with his sister. She isn't a big fan of electronic music, and she'd like to go to a rock concert that isn't too loud.

7

Ian likes concerts with a lot of instruments, but he isn't very keen on music from Central or South America. He likes modern and classical music and he'd prefer to see a concert in a big theatre.

8

Bridget, who is a big fan of The Beatles and rock and roll, finds unplugged concerts boring. She likes collecting souvenirs from the concerts she goes to.

9

Wesley is from the UK and he loves listening to music from other countries even though he doesn't understand the lyrics. He'd like to help other people in some way.

10

Vanessa is half Spanish. She usually likes watching ballet dancers perform, but this time she'd love to watch a big international star in concert.

Concerts

- A Charity Classics
Come to the stadium this Thursday evening! Enjoy the sound of the local symphony orchestra. Don't miss this amazing classical music performance live on stage. Be there at 7.30pm. All ticket sales go to Save the Wildlife.
- B Tchaikovsky's *Swan Lake
Professor David Elliot is bringing this masterpiece alive to London's Grand Theatre. Swan Lake will be played by the Middleton student orchestra this weekend only. There may be no ballet dancers, but the music will make you want to dance. Tickets sold online.
- C Melina Brown unplugged
18-year-old Melina Brown is on her way to becoming a big rock star. She's performing next Friday at the public youth club. Melina – influenced by rock singers such as Kurt Cobain and Mick Jagger – will play her own songs on her acoustic guitar. Tickets are limited. Get yours today!
- D Stars for Africa
Paul Alwin of Radioheart and Julie Jones of Heavenly 4 are joining forces for next month's charity concert. They won't be singing their big hits, but traditional African songs with musicians from Senegal. Venue: Ben's Place. Tickets: 18 euros (all money raised will go to charity Help Africa).
- E Rock 'n Roll Robin
American singer Robin King and his band are playing tonight after 9pm in the main square. All you Elvis Presley lovers must not miss it! This is the best tribute band to the King of Rock and Roll! T-shirts, CDs and posters will be available next to the stage. It's now or never!
- F Marco Antonino
He's been in the Latin music industry for decades, but this is his first concert in London's Wembley Stadium. Marco, the big salsa star, will give six performances this August as part of his world tour. His group of dancers and musicians will amaze you! Don't wait any longer to buy your ticket!
- G Mariziachi Band
Are you tired of listening to the same kind of music? If so, the Mariziachi Band is here to cheer you up. Their sound is fresh, fun and Mexican! Big hats, colourful suits, huge guitars, violins and trumpets will guarantee a great afternoon. Don't worry about not understanding the Spanish lyrics; the rhythm of the rancheras won't let you sit down! 5.30pm, Music Theatre
- H The Rhythmic Tigers
'The Beatles' successors are in town,' according to music producer Steve Richards. The Rhythmic Tigers may remind you of The Beatles, but their sound is unique. Electronic, loud and experimental, the five Tigers from London are presenting their new album at the open-air festival this Thursday, 9pm.

READING PART 3

Questions 11 – 15

Read the text and questions below.
For each question, choose the correct answer.

Are personal shoppers a growing fashion?

A day in the life of a personal shopper

'Personal shoppers are in great demand these days,' says Thomas, who has been working as one for the past five years. As we were walking past designer clothes shops, I asked him why he thinks this has happened. He says that there are many people who want to be fashionable, but they don't know where to start. They need a professional to advise them.

But why? I always call my best friend to help me find the perfect dress, not a stranger! 'I can help in three different ways. The first thing I do is help my customer improve their image. I teach them to choose colours and clothes that suit them, and how to use make-up,' Thomas tells me. 'Then I organise the customer's wardrobe; I might even throw away some old clothes.' The third service has to do with actual shopping: the personal shopper and the customer visit shops and buy clothes according to the customer's personality, lifestyle and needs.

Of course, each of the above services costs between 150 and 225 euros! Do many people have this kind of money to spend? 'Most of my customers are rich business people who call me for important meetings or business parties,' explains Thomas. 'However, I also work for people in all kinds of jobs and for retired men and women who want a change of look.' I was quite impressed, but I still didn't see why ordinary people would need someone like Thomas.

We spent the rest of the day shopping. Every time we came out of a shop, we had one more bag. In the end, I went home with a beautiful dress, two pairs of trousers, some lovely tops and a couple of coats. I'd never had a shopping day like this before! I admit that I'd spent more than I usually do, but I wouldn't have found such beautiful clothes without Thomas. I just wish personal shoppers were a bit cheaper!

- 11 What is the writer doing in the article?
- A talking about shopping in expensive shops
  - B finding out what personal shoppers do
  - C describing how she chooses which clothes to buy
  - D explaining the kind of clothes Thomas buys
- 12 Why does Thomas think personal shoppers are mainly necessary?
- A People don't like following fashion.
  - B People have started shopping for designer clothes.
  - C People want to spend less money on clothes.
  - D People need help with choosing the right clothes.
- 13 What does Thomas say about the services a personal shopper offers?
- A The customer can learn things through these services.
  - B The customer can't choose which service to pay for.
  - C They don't depend on the customer's character and preferences.
  - D The third service is more useful than the other two.
- 14 What was the writer's attitude to personal shopping?
- A She didn't understand why people wanted to look different.
  - B She believed it was an important job.
  - C She felt it wasn't essential.
  - D She agreed that these services were necessary.
- 15 How might the writer describe her shopping day with Thomas?

A

An enjoyable day, and surprisingly cheap.

B

A fun day, but it ended badly.

C

An amazing day despite my doubts.

D

An unexpected day that wasn't worth the money.

READING PART 4

Questions 16 – 20

Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

The coolest hotel in the world

About the Ice Hotel

The Ice Hotel, which is located in a small village in the north of Sweden, was built in 1990 for the first time. It is rebuilt each year from the middle of November. (16) — The whole hotel is made of – ice and snow! Every year a team of snow builders, architects, designers and artists gather to create this amazing hotel.

When to come

If you come at the beginning of winter, you'll be able to see parts of the hotel being built and artists sculpting huge blocks of ice. The warmer months of spring and summer are also a nice time to visit this area of Sweden – called Lapland – because night starts turning into day. (17) — But, of course, if you come then, you won't be able to stay at the Ice Hotel!

Accommodation

You can choose to sleep in a warm room in a cabin or hotel nearby or a cold room in the Ice Hotel. The temperature inside the hotel doesn't go lower than -8 degrees Celsius. (18) — Warm winter clothes and other equipment are included in the price. In the rooms, the beds, furniture and sculptures are all made from ice!

Activities

If you like extreme activities, you can go on a snowmobile tour or discover the wild landscape on a sleigh pulled by dogs. (19) — And for those who are feeling romantic, the Northern Lights are an unforgettable sight. If you choose to come in summer, river rafting is the most popular activity. (20) — .

- A This means the sun almost never sets.
- B Some visitors also enjoy fishing in the Torne River.
- C It is cold in Lapland all year round.
- D This is because it starts to melt at the end of April.
- E There are lots of reindeer in Sweden.
- F The Ice Hotel doesn't melt all year.
- G However, you'll need special clothes and a hat when you get into your sleeping bag.
- H If you're artistic, then why not try ice sculpting?
